FENIMORE ART MUSEUM COOPERSTOWN, NY

In 1930, Edward Severin Clark built a Neo-Georgian mansion on property once owned by famed author James Fenimore Cooper.

Enjoy exhibition Bob Dylan Remastered: Drawings from the Road

This exhibition celebrates yet another aspect of Dylan's creativity: his talents in visual art. Dylan started what is known as his "Never Ending Tour" in 1988. As he traveled through North America, Europe, and Asia, he sketched glimpses of his life on the road. Dylan made three different collections of his drawings by "remastering" these works, adding vivid watercolor and gouache to digital enlargements of the drawings to create a new, special edition set entitled "The Drawn Blank Series."

Additional exhibits include: The Thaw Collection of American Indian Art, American Folk Art, American Fine Art, and more!
